

STRATFORD AND THE COTSWOLDS: Saturday 16th July 2011

Love Shakespeare? Then join us for this tour of Stratford and the Cotswolds. Begin your day at Shakespeare's Stratford upon Avon to find out where Shakespeare went to school, how he survived the plague and why he put a curse on his own grave! The tour includes entry to Shakespeare's Birthplace. After lunch, we journey through the Cotswolds, a region of beautiful limestone hills and picturesque villages. Stop at Bourton on the Water, the Venice of the Cotswolds where you can enjoy a traditional cream tea (at own expense).

INCLUDED IN THE PRICE: Entrance Shakespeare's Birthplace, coach travel to and from Kingston University, and Blue Badge Tourist Guide.

Price per person is £49 if booked before 31st May.
Price per person £55 if booked after 1 June.
